

BC RECREATION & PARKS ASSOCIATION

How to Host a Playground Safety Awareness Course

Course Details

- $145/person course fee
- 8 hours (including breaks)
- Minimum 10 people, maximum 20
- Certificate upon successful completion

1. Complete and send in the Parks & Recreation Course Request Form which includes:

- a. Potential dates & times
- b. Location
- c. Whether the course is open to the public

2. Confirm with the Parks and Recreation Program Coordinator:

- a. Instructor availability
- b. Promotion details (BCRPA website & email Communiqué)
- c. Administration details

Responsibilities	Host	BCRPA
Audio-visual (LCD Projector, screen, & flipchart)	✓
Classroom Space (in proximity to a playground)	✓
Refreshments	✓
Marketing/Promotions	✓	✓
Registration	✓	Is available by request
Instructor Fees (including travel expenses)		✓
Course Materials		✓

Benefits of hosting a Playground Safety Awareness Course

- Maintain efficiencies at your operation
- Maintain a safe work/play environment
- Enhance your staff's knowledge, skills and abilities
- Mitigate risk

For more information:

Contact the Parks and Recreation Program Coordinator at parksandrec@bcrpa.bc.ca or visit http://bcrpa.bc.ca/recreation_parks/parks/course_description.htm.