New Online Exam Writing System

Dear BCRPA,

We have exciting news to share with you with respect to our online exam process and format.

We have recently partnered with ProctorU, an independent online proctoring service, to create a new convenient and flexible exam booking and writing system for students to complete their Fitness Theory and Older Adult exams.

The new system enables these exams to be written from the comfort of your own home, or any location you desire, without the requirement of an in-person proctor/invigilator - giving you the maximum amount of freedom and control.

The new system takes effect on July 13, 2016.

If you have purchased a Fitness Theory or Older Adult exam prior to July 13, 2016 you will have already been sent an email explaining your options. These options are only in effect until August 31 so please contact Sara Ferguson at sferguson@bcrpa.bc.ca if you have not received this correspondence.

We continue to work hard to improve our services to you, focusing on providing you with fast, reliable, and responsive service and options.

Our partnership with ProctorU delivers on all of these things. The new exam writing system it creates puts control in your hands and maximizes your valuable time, allowing your schedule, not ours or that of others, to determine when and where you can get things done.

Thank you for attention to this, and for your continued support of the BCRPA.
